REGISTER ONLINE

www.worlddairyexpo.com/pages/Online-Contest-Registration.php

Teams can register online through the World Dairy Expo website. Those completing the entry form will be asked to provide contact information for the state 4-H Program Authorized Leader. This State Leader will receive a confirmation email they must reply to, confirming team member information in order to complete the registration process. Teams are asked to pay with a credit card.

The State 4-H Program leader approving the team entry is also verifying that their delegation has accident and medical insurance, the adults have passed a background check and received risk management training, the youth and adults have accepted an appropriate code of conduct, the state accepts liability for their delegation, and all risk management issues are the responsibility of the Land Grant Institution the team represents. In addition, approval is granted to publish and copyright participants image (including audio, moving image or photography) for educational programs, websites and promotion of this Contest.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE & FEES

The entry fee is $200 per team on or before September 8. Teams may enter via the website for a late fee of $250 per team September 9 - 15.

One Coaches Meeting ticket is complimentary. Additional Coaches Meeting tickets are available for $35. Five (5) complimentary Awards Banquet tickets are also provided per team. Additional tickets for the banquet will be $40 per person. Extra Banquet tickets can be purchased online before September 25. More information will be directly emailed to coaches after registration closes. Please note, breakfast will not be provided on-grounds the morning of the contest. Please plan accordingly.

World Dairy Expo does not charge admission or parking fees the day of the contest or Monday, October 2. However, admission will be charged starting Tuesday, October 3. Additional entry tickets are available at a reduced rate of $10 per person per day until September 8. At the gate, fees increase to $25 for a daily pass and $50 for a season pass (all attendees, 12-years and older, are required to have an admission pass to enter the show grounds). A link to purchase discounted admission tickets will be included in your confirmation email after registering your team. Admission tickets must be purchased via the link and not at the time of team registration.

Lodging

To make your trip to Madison easier, World Dairy Expo has a block of rooms reserved at the AmericInn Madison South for youth judging team participants, coaches and parents. Rooms are $195 per night for double queen rooms. Please call the AmericInn directly at (608) 222-8601 by September 1 to place your reservation(s). Specify you are with the "World Dairy Expo Youth Contest Group" room block.

RULES & REGULATIONS

Contestants, coaches and leaders are not permitted in or near the New Holland Pavilions or Cattle Tent on the grounds prior to the contest except as announced by the Superintendent.

Contestants and Eligibility

1. A 4-H member who celebrates their 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th or 19th birthday during the calendar year of the contest is age eligible for this National 4-H competitive event.
2. All contestants must be members of 4-H in the state they are representing during the year in which the National 4-H competitive event is held. If the contest occurs in October, contestants who have been 4-H members anytime in the calendar year leading up to the contest are eligible. An individual may participate in the National 4-H Dairy Cattle Judging Contest one time.
3. The contestants must be certified as complying with all eligibility rules and the team must be certified as the official state entry by electronic verification of the State 4-H Leader. The individual(s) or team(s) may be selected by any procedure the State 4-H Leader believes is appropriate.
4. A 4-H member who is participating in or has completed post-secondary course work in Dairy Cattle Judging or Dairy Cattle Evaluation is not eligible. A 4-H member who has participated in a post-secondary Dairy Cattle Judging Contest is not eligible. 4-H contest participants are prohibited from participating in the post-secondary or intercollegiate contests, including practical and/or linear contests. Violations of the above will result in forfeiture of any awards or recognitions which have been won in the National 4-H Competitive event.
5. Each state may enter four members in the contest with the three top scores making up the state team. The contestant with the lowest overall score from each team will be designated as the alternate, but will be eligible for individual awards. NOTE: Substitutions can be made and can occur no later than the Saturday coaches banquet. Substitutes must meet all eligibility requirements.
6. Competing in both 4-H and FFA National Events
The National offices of 4-H and FFA have agreed on the following national policy in the interest of consistency between events and between organizations in eligibility for national competition: Participation by the same individual in both a National 4-H and a National FFA competitive event in the same year may occur only when the following is accomplished:

For 4-H: Participation in a National 4-H competitive event will require that all youth participating be a "bona fide" 4-H participant in the current calendar year leading up to the contest and must qualify for the national event through an approved state competition or selection process conducted or sanctioned by the representative organization.

For FFA: Participation in a National FFA Career Development event will require that all youth participating be a "bona fide" member of an FFA Chapter and must qualify for the national event through an approved state competition conducted or sanctioned by the representative organization.
7. National Policy on Medical/Accident Insurance
Each state or territory will provide medical/accident coverage for all its 4-H teams participating in all 4-H event as well as medical/accident coverage during travel to and from the events.

Superintendent

1. It is the duty of the superintendent and the assistant superintendents of the contest, in cooperation with the contest management committee, to see that all rules and regulations governing the contest are duly carried out. They shall decide all questions which arise in connection with interpretation of rules governing the contest.
2. The Superintendent shall provide a sufficient number of clerks and assistants to help in conducting the contest.
3. The Superintendent shall hold a meeting of the coaches in advance of the contest. At this meeting the coaches may discuss any points on the rules or conduct of the contest.
4. The Superintendent shall hold a meeting of the contestants immediately preceding the contest; at which time he/she shall assign the contestants to groups and give such other directions as deemed necessary.
5. The Superintendent and Assistant Superintendents, who are not designated as Officials, shall not take part in the rating of the contestant.
6. The Superintendent shall have charge of all records and shall have all ratings tabulated, totaled and distributed.

Clerks and Assistants

1. The clerks, assistants and attendants shall be under the direction of the Superintendent and shall carry out orders. None of them shall confer with the contestants unless directed by the Superintendent.

2. One assistant (squad leader) shall have charge of each group of Contestants, and shall see to it that each contestant in his/her group remains in his/her presence during the entire time the contest is in progress, except in cases of emergency or a designated break, and then as directed by the Superintendent.
3. One ring leader will be assigned to each ring to direct moving of cattle and collect cards.

Contestants

1. No contestant shall be allowed to take any books, notes, or writing paper into the contest except those items provided by the Superintendent. No contestant shall wear pins, badges, or other marks of identification which may reveal his or her identity or that of the state represented. Clipboards will be provided for each contestant by the Superintendent.
2. Contestants will utilize ringside iPads to submit each class placing. These iPads replace the traditional paper cards submitted at the conclusion of each class. Contestants will have a unique barcode attached to their contestant number. When the contestant has completed judging a class, he/she will scan their barcode at an iPad and will then select the breed and class, and input his/her placing. Each contestant will have a back-up paper he/she will use to record his/her placings and submit at the conclusion of the contest.
3. Contestants are not allowed to bring in or use any cell phone or other electronic devices for communications during the contest. The Superintendent will gather phone numbers for each team coach in case of any emergencies.
4. While the contest is in progress there will be no communications among the contestants, or between a contestant and anyone else, except the squad leader. Coaches around the ringside are requested to hold discussions to a minimum.
5. Any contestant violating any rule shall be barred from the contest.
6. No handling of the animals will be permitted by the contestants.
7. Animals will be judged on breed type.

11. Records submitted to the superintendent, tabulated and announced shall be final.

Judges

1. The classes will be selected by a selection committee other than the official judges.
2. The judges shall place the rings while the contestants are working in the arena. The judges shall enter their placings on a card and file that card with the Superintendent.
3. A computer-calculated 50-point scoring system shall be used to grade each placing combination for each ring.

Times and Reasons

4. Contestants will be allowed 15-minutes to place each class, including both reasons and non-reasons classes. Placings shall be entered into provided electronic tablets during and up to the end of the allocated time period for each class.
5. Ruled notebook paper will be furnished for oral reasons notes.
6. Oral reasons will be given following lunch.
7. Two minutes will be allowed to give oral reasons to judges. No exceptions. The contestants' placings will not be returned nor will they be allowed the use of notes during oral reasons.

Rings of Animals

1. The various rings to be judged shall be selected by competent judges and approved by the Superintendent of the contest.
2. Four animals shall constitute a ring.
3. Five cow classes and five heifer classes shall be selected from the following breeds: Ayrshire, Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Holstein and Jersey.
4. The cattle shall be designated by numbers (1, 2, 3, 4) on the holders of the animals.
5. The animals shall be held in a careful manner, so that all Contestants may have a fair chance to view them. The animals shall be lined up consecutively: 1, 2, 3, 4, right to left, as viewed from the rear. However, it is the responsibility of each contestant to see that his/her placing conforms to the numbers of the animals in any event. The Superintendent shall make every effort to have the animals held in the same positions by the same holders, and in the same relative position for the Judges as for the Contestants.
6. The ring and classes will be shared with the collegiate and post-secondary contestants.

PRE-CONTEST PRACTICE SESSIONS AND TOURS - TO BE DETERMINED

Information regarding pre-contest tours will be sent with entry confirmation.

Biosecurity

1. All contest members are required to bring enough plastic boots for each farm.
2. Avoid farms, sale barns, stockyards, animal laboratories, packinghouses, zoos, fairs or other animal facilities for five days prior to leaving a foreign country.
3. Avoid contact with livestock or wildlife for five days after arrival in the United States from international travel.
4. Any individual who has been on a farm or in contact with an animal infected with Foot and Mouth Disease should have no contact with wild or domestic animals for 10 days before visiting the practice team herd facilities. Individuals must then thoroughly shower, shampoo, and change into new clothing before attending the practice sessions.

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The National 4-H Dairy Cattle Judging Contest provides equal opportunities in its programming, including Title IX and ADA. Please make requests for reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to educational programs as early as possible (10 days is reasonable) preceding the scheduled program, service or activity. Call (608) 224-6455 to request an accommodation.
